INFORMATION REPORT		This Document contains information affecting the National Defense of the United States, within the meaning of Title 18, Sections 793 and 794, of the U.S. Code, as amended. Its transmission or revelation of its contents
INFOR	MATION REPORT		to or receipt by an unauthorized person is prohibited by law. The reproduction of this form is prohibited.
	SECRET/			25X1
COUNTRY	Poland		REPORT	25X1
SUBJECT	 Transfer of the S to the Soviet Mar Looting of Foodst 	itime Register	KI DATE DISTR. 11 June 1954 NO. OF PAGES 2
DATE OF I	Gdynia		REQUIREMENT	25X1
PLACE ACC	QUIRED	25X	1 REFERENCES
		1.4		. 25 X1
1.	Shipyard in April 1954, a Maritime Register. It is	and subsequently she s anticipated that t	o for overhaul to Gdansk (Danzig) will be entered in the Soviet me LECH will remain in the ship-
1. 5X1	Maritime Register. It is yard for five months, but overhaul will be complete out of service, her place the Lewant Line (sic). The S.S. DABROWSKI (Londo August or September 1954.	and subsequently shes anticipated that to the control of the contr	o for overhaul to Gdansk (Danzig) will be entered in the Soviet ne LECH will remain in the ship- it is doubtful whether the n months. While the LECH is ne S.S. CZECH, now sailing on ne to leave Gdansk Shipyard in be taken over by the Soviet
5X1	Shipyard in April 1954, a Maritime Register. It is yard for five months, but overhaul will be complete out of service, her place the Lewant Line (sic). The S.S. DABROWSKI (Londo August or September 1954, Maritime Register. The management of P.L.O. with the order to transfer	and subsequently shes anticipated that to the above-named sitto be carried out in	will be entered in the Soviet the LECH will remain in the ship- it is doubtful whether the months. While the LECH is the S.S. CZECH, now sailing on the to leave Gdansk Shipyard in the taken over by the Soviet The has expressed dissatisfaction tips to the Soviet Register and the Poland. Efforts to change
5X1	Maritime Register. It is yard for five months, but overhaul will be complete out of service, her place the Lewant Line (sic). The S.S. DABROWSKI (Londo August or September 1954; Maritime Register. The management of P.L.O. with the order to transfet that their overhauls are this decision in the Minimum The P.L.O. bases its argupolar are more costly that rule do not abide by see exploited, and this leads	and subsequently she anticipated that to the anticipated that to the anticipated that to the anticipated that to the anticipated that several and she is also to the carried out in a stry of Shipping have the anticipated that in foreign shipping to claims for non-	will be entered in the Soviet the LECH will remain in the ship- it is doubtful whether the months. While the LECH is the S.S. CZECH, now sailing on the to leave Gdansk Shipyard in the taken over by the Soviet The has expressed dissatisfaction tips to the Soviet Register and Foland. Efforts to change the been in vain. I that overhauls carried out in the taken over by the Soviet therefore, cannot be fully tompletion of the plan. The
5X1 2. 3. 4.	Maritime Register. It is yard for five months, but overhaul will be complete out of service, her place the Lewant Idne (sic). The S.S. DABROWSKI (Londa August or September 1954, Maritime Register. The management of P.L.O. with the order to transfet that their overhauls are this decision in the Minimum The P.L.O. bases its argument of Poland are more costly the rule do not abide by so exploited, and this leads fact that the Soviet Maritime Counterpart, is a counterpart, is a	and subsequently she anticipated that to the anticipated that to the anticipated that to the anticipated that to the anticipated line) is donor and she is also to the above-named sto be carried out instry of Shipping have the anticipated and the anticipated line anticipated	will be entered in the Soviet the LECH will remain in the ship— it is doubtful whether the months. While the LECH is the S.S. CZECH, now sailing on the to leave Gdansk Shippard in the taken over by the Soviet The soviet Register and the Poland. Efforts to change the been in vain. I that overhauls carried out in the ards, and Polish shippards as therefore, cannot be fully completion of the plan. The the more exacting than its L.O.'s apprehension.
5X1 2. 3.	Shipyard in April 1954, a Maritime Register. It is yard for five months, but overhaul will be complete out of service, her place the Lewant Line (sic). The S.S. DABROWSKI (London August or September 1954, Maritime Register. The management of P.L.O. with the order to transfethat their overhauls are this decision in the Minimary Poland are more costly the rule do not abide by see exploited, and this leads fact that the Soviet Maritime Counterpart, is a Quarrels between the offit taking place with increase especially bacon. These of food. Deck officers as	and subsequently shes anticipated that to the second in less than several and she is also to the carried out in stry of Shipping has to be carried out in stry of Shipping has to claims for non-time Register is much the carried should be carried out in the ships of the ships of the ships of the carried out in the ships of the shi	will be entered in the Soviet the LECH will remain in the ship— it is doubtful whether the months. While the LECH is the S.S. CZECH, now sailing on the to leave Gdansk Shippard in the taken over by the Soviet the has expressed dissatisfaction tips to the Soviet Register and the Poland. Efforts to change the been in vain. I that overhauls carried out in the total process of the plan. The the more exacting than its

Approved For Release 2005/11/22 : CIA-RDP80-00810A004200030006-6

-2-
	25X1
25X1 the dockers in the hold were slashing open bags of bacon and cutting off whole strips. When the officer remonstrated, the dockers showed him their knives and invited him to come down to them and take away the meat.
considerable pressure was being brought by the Party on the Polish	25X1
Merchant Marine to transfer all ships to the Soviet Register. At that time the Technical Inspectorate of P.L.O. was strongly opposed to this, stressing Poland's lack of spare parts.

SECRET 25X1